Twin Cities campus, Minneapolis

Come view more than 65 posters representing 40 graduate programs. Meet the top recipients of the 2008–09 doctoral dissertation fellowships—outstanding, final-year Ph.D. candidates—as they describe their work in fields from engineering to English. Candidates for these fellowships are nominated by their programs' directors of graduate studies in a University-wide competition sponsored by the Graduate School. This year, 142 fellowships were awarded.
