EMPLOYERS: DON’T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY to meet innovative, self-motivated, intellectual risk-takers!

University of Minnesota career NETWORKING event
For Graduate Students, Post-Doctoral Researchers & Alumni

Friday, April 1, 2016 | 9 a.m.-12 p.m. | McNamara Alumni Center

Why should you attend?
• The Career Networking Event provides a no-cost way to network with graduate students, alumni, and postdoctoral researchers and consultants from many fields
• Last year’s event drew nearly 300 highly trained graduate students and postdocs from more than 80 programs

Don’t have current job openings? No problem.
• Meet potential future employees & learn about their career interests
• Our students are also eager to explore potential internships, as well as opportunities for long and short term research collaborations
