ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE THROUGH DIVERSITY

equity, access & diversity issues in graduate & professional education

What can we do at the U of M to improve the recruitment & retention of a diverse graduate and professional student body?

What do we even mean when we say “diversity,” and why is diversity so hard to discuss?

How are the decisions we make influenced by unconscious bias? How can implicit biases be overcome?

How do we create a climate on campus that’s conducive to success for all students?

You’re invited to take part in a challenging discussion about diversity in graduate education
